- Leeds City Council reserve the right to refuse admission to products and services provided.
- An Active Leeds Membership sold online has a 14 day Cooling Off Period in which the member can cancel their membership in accordance with the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013. The 14 day Cooling Off Period commences from the date of the purchase online of a new membership and from the date of commencement of renewal for a renewed membership. To cancel a membership purchased online within the 14 day cooling off period you must email Customer Services at activeleeds@leeds.gov.uk to confirm you wish to cancel. Any usage during this period will be calculated at the standard rate for that activity and charged back to the member unless a Direct Debit payment has been processed whereby the calculated usage will be deducted from any refund owed.

- Leeds City Council reserves the right to review and/or alter these Terms and Conditions at any time. Notices will be displayed in the Leeds City Council Active Leeds facilities and, where an email address has been provided the reviewed and/or altered Terms and Conditions will be served on members by email, otherwise they will be served on the member by 2nd Class post.
- These Terms and Conditions and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them or their subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of England and Wales.
- No failure by Leeds City Council to enforce any provision in these Terms and Conditions shall constitute a waiver of the right to subsequently enforce that provision or any other provision of these Terms and Conditions. Such failure shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding or subsequent breach and shall not constitute a continuing waiver.
- A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions shall not have any rights under or in connection with them.
- Written notices that are required to be given under these Terms and Conditions by Leeds City Council will be sent by email to the member where an email address has been provided on the Active Leeds Application Form (or such other email address which the member has notified to Leeds City Council during the course of the contract). All notices sent by email will be deemed to have been received by the member 24 hours after sending providing no non-delivery notice is received by the Council. Where an email address is not provided, or the sending by email fails, 2nd Class Post will be used to the address stated on the Active Leeds Application Form (or such other address which the member has notified to Leeds City Council during the course of the contract). All notices sent by 2nd Class Post will be deemed to have been received by the Member three days after posting. It is the responsibility of the member to ensure that Leeds City Council is informed of any change of email address or postal address. All other notices required to be given by Leeds City Council will be placed in a prominent position within the Leeds City Council Active Leeds facilities.

Suspensions

- Any Active Leeds Member who wishes to have their Health & Fitness membership suspended must contact Active Leeds directly. This can be done by contacting the CSC.
- Any such suspension must be for a minimum period of two calendar months and shall take effect as from the date they have contacted Active Leeds.
- The maximum period of suspension is 6 months.
- The suspension period will be supplied by you the member.
- For members who pay via Direct Debit notification of suspension will be required 10 working days before their next collection. Should the notification be beyond the cut-off date then the suspension will be applied at the next collection date.
- Direct Debit paying members payments will restart automatically for your membership at the end of the suspension period.
- Annual members who suspend will have their membership extended by the period they have requested.
- Suspensions must always cover full calendar month periods with the contract expiry date suitably extended.
